THE SEDGWICK MONUMENT SITE

Connecticut Commission Met Here to Decide Upon Site for Twenty Five Thousand Dollar Memorial to General Sedgwick.

The Sedgwick Monument Commission met here today to decide upon a site for the equestrian statue to Major General John Sedgwick for which the Connecticut Legislature recently appropriated $25,000. A site near Sykes' and Sedgwick's headquarters on Skyes' Avenue received the most favorable consideration.

The Commission consists of the following men: Charles H. Pine, Charles F. Linsley, O. R. Fyler, Dwight C. Kilbourn, and Rockwell H. Potter. Governor Weeks of Connecticut is also a member of the Commission but did not accompany them here. Prof. John A. Himes of Carlisle street is an honorary member of the Sixth Corps Society Army of the Potomac and was secretary of the committee through whose efforts the appropriation bill was passed. Prof. Himes met with the Commission here and accompanied them on their tour of the battlefield.

The National Park Commission also met with the Connecticut gentlemen and pointed out the advantages and the appropriateness of the above mentioned site. There is a clearing on the left hand side of the avenue near the small one story building marking the headquarters and it is in this clearing that the monument will probably be placed.

Before the matter can be decided definitely however the Secretary of War will have to give his approval to the site selected. This is generally a mere form.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS BUSY

Houses and Buildings of Other Character Hurried Along as Summer Comes to a Close and Fall Opens.

Contractors and builders continue to put in busy hours as the first days of the Fall season pass by and they are hurrying along work on the many building operations in town.

The foundation for the new home of Mr. Biddle on Water street has been completed. The house which is to be a handsome building has a concrete foundation.

Though not fully completed Amos Eckert is moving into his new home on Springs avenue. The residence is one of the many substantial new structures erected in that part of town.

The stone walls of the new bank building are approaching their destined height and the large steel supports for the roof are being put in place. The real beauty of the building will be shown only after the portico has been erected.

Mrs. Richard's new home on Springs avenue is being hurried along. Quite a large amount of her goods has been stored on the attic of the new home, the remainder being put away until the house is fully completed.

The handsome stone front house of N. H. Musselman on East Middle street presents an imposing appearance and is one of the finest residences in that part of town. The building is large and commodious and has been pushed right along.

The new addition to John M. Warner's building at the corner of East Middle and Baltimore streets is being hurried. It is now under roof and the interior work will be completed as fast as possible. As noted in these columns some weeks ago the first floor will be for moving picture purposes and the second will be used for flats.

The brick residences on York street being erected by Frank and Edward Schriver have reached about the second story now and here, too, the workmen are making good time.

Other building operations and improvements in the town are numerous and Gettysburg is showing the effects of a busy Summer. Almost every visitor comments upon the great number of new residences and remodeled old ones which may be seen on almost every street.

FOUND SAPPHIRE

Mrs. Crout, wife of Jason E. Crout, of the Pen Mar restaurant, is the possessor of a sapphire worth about $100 which she acquired in a very peculiar way. The demands of the dining room require the assassination of hundreds of chickens daily and it was in the claw of one of these fowls that a colored executioner found the stone and turned it over to Mrs. Crout. It is supposed that it was lost from the ring or brooch of some excursionist and that the chicken in picking up gravel and pecking about the grounds, came across it and swallowed it.

Mrs. Crout also possesses a fine large pearl which was found in an oyster some years ago and which she had set in a ring. She will have the sapphire set in a ring too.

McSherrystown, Sept. 23—Contractor W. B. Johnston of Spring Grove, is now at work on the new State Road, which runs from the Borough line through Brunsdown to the Niederer farm, a distance of nearly three miles. A two horse team belonging to David Plank ran off from in front of the Jail on High street this morning. When they reached the houses of W. H. The traces broke at this juncture and the horses were freed. Later they were caught near the Colored School. No one was hurt.

ROBBERS MURDER ENTIRE FAMILY

Six Persons Killed and Burned With Their Home.

BLOODHOUNDS TRAIL FIENDS

Blackened Masses of Half-Burned Flesh and Bones Were Found In Debris of House and Man's Mutilated Body In the Yard—Murderers Will Be Lynched If Caught.

Bluefield, W. Va., Sept. 23.—An entire family of six persons were murdered, and the bodies of all but one of the victims were burned with their home at Hurley, Buchanan county, Va. The motive was evidently robbery, as the owner of the house, an aged woman known as "Aunt Betty" Justis, was generally supposed to keep a large sum of money about the place.

Mrs. Justis, her son-in-law, George Meadows; his wife and their three children were the victims. Meadows' body, badly mutilated, was found lying in the yard of his destroyed home, the funeral pyre of his loved ones. Two bullet holes through the body and a ghastly wound in the neck, which almost severed the head from the body, gave the discoverers their first evidence of the extent of the tragedy.

A search of the ruins of the house disclosed a sickening spectacle. The blackened masses of half-burned flesh and charred bones of the two women and the three children were found beneath the debris, each body bearing evidences of murder committed before the house was destroyed by fire, evidently for the purpose of hiding the crime. The elder woman's skull was upturned some distance from the remainder of her half-burned body amid the smoldering ruins.

Another daughter of Mrs. Justis told the police that her mother had a large sum of money buried under the sill of the house, and they succeeded in digging up $950 in gold and silver. The murderers are supposed to have secured the $600 which "Aunt Betty" always carried on her person.

Bloodhounds were rushed to the scene and in a short time they took up the trail of the supposed murderers in a cornfield which adjoined the Justis home. There the footprints of three men were found impressed in the soft soil. A posse of citizens, all heavily armed, are following the bloodhounds, bent on lynching the murderers if they are captured.

TORTURED BY BURGLARS

Break Woman's Skull After Effort to Find Her Money.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—Two burglars entered the home of Mrs. Andrew Novitsky, at Larksville, near here, and tortured her in an effort to make her reveal the whereabouts of $200 she had received from a miners' benefit company on account of injuries to her husband. She was alone in the house, her husband being in the hospital, and despite the fact that they twisted her arms and pulled her hair, she would not tell where the money was. Her screams aroused the neighbors and the burglars fled, but as they were leaving one struck her on the head, fracturing her skull, and she is in a precarious condition.

Lewes, Del., Celebrates.

Lewes, Del., Sept. 23.—The three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Delaware bay and river by Henry Hudson and the anniversary of the establishment of the first white settlement in Delaware in 1681 by a Dutch colony headed by David Pieterse de Vries, were celebrated here. The principal feature of the day was the unrolling of a monument erected in memory of De Vries. The orator of the day was Federal Judge George Gray, of Wilmington.

A Speedy Torpedo Boat Destroyer.

Lewes, Del., Sept. 23.—The United States torpedo boat destroyer Smith made the remarkable speed of thirty-two knots an hour, four knots more than required by the contract, in the standardization run on the standard mile off the Delaware Breakwater. The Smith was built by the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building company, of Philadelphia, and is the first destroyer ever built by the Cramps.

TAFT CROSSES ROCKIES

Viewed White Capped Peaks and Traveled Through Fields of Snow. Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 23.—President Taft crossed the continental divide and today finds himself west of the Rocky mountains. Yesterday the president traveled with the panorama of the white capped peaks of the Rockies in view and at one time the train ran for a mile or more through fields of snow.

For the first time the president traveled through the Grand Canon of the Arkansas, where at one place the half-mile deep canon is so narrow that there is not room for the track and the river, and the former has to be carried over the rushing waters by means of a hanging bridge, suspended by cables embedded in the rocky walls of the chasm. The eleven mile ride through the canon was made by moonlight.

The president did not feel the altitude, and at the end of his first week of "one night stands" he is in splendid health.

SAID BRIDE TRIED TO ELOPE

Arrested as She Was About to Leave York For Baltimore.

York, Pa., Sept. 23.—Weary of her husband after thirteen days of married life, Mrs. George Switzer was accused of attempting to elope with Charles Snyder, a married man, and was placed under arrest as she was about to board a train for Baltimore.

Snyder will, if caught, be held for larceny, for the baggage of the couple contained much of Mr. Switzer's personal property.

EXPECT END OF WORLD TOMORROW

Members of Strange Sect Gather For the Millenium.

West Duxbury, Mass., Sept. 23.—Firm in their conviction that the world will come to an end at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, a colony of about 300 members of the denomination who are known as the Latter Reign of the Apostolic Church, are spending what they believe to be their few remaining hours in prayer, song and exhortation.

Worldly tasks have been laid aside for the faithful may prepare for the millenium.

The services are practically continuous. In all branches of the worship the congregation participates, singing the hymns with fervor and interrupting prayer and exhortation with pious ejaculations.

Occasionally the services at the chapel are suspended long enough to permit a trip to the neighboring pond, where the converts are baptized.

None of the faithful appears to have the shadow of a doubt that the world will end tomorrow. When asked what they will do if the expected event does not materialize most of them refuse to entertain such a supposition. Some suggest that a love feast be held for ten days or so, while others still say that if the millenium does not come on Friday it will come next year at the same time.

LOST IN WOODS AND DIED

Blind Man Perished Trying to Reach His Old Home.

Dorothy, N. J., Sept. 23.—The dead body of David R. Edwards, a former resident of this town, was found in the underbrush by George Greller, who was driving from Risley to Dorothy. The furious barking of his dog attracted his attention to the spot where the body was lying.

Mystery surrounds the finding of the body here, as Edwards was known to be in the care of the Little Sisters of the Poor at Scranton, Pa. The deceased was seventy-five years old. He leaves a married son, who is living in Scranton. He is supposed to have been trying to reach his home here, but being totally blind apparently lost his way in the woods.

Court Forbids Him to Spank His Child

Pittsburg, Sept. 23.—Thomas Wilson, of Carnegie, must not spank his own child. Whenever any correction is necessary, his wife Anna will perform the act. This point was decided by Judge John G. Haymaker. Mrs. Wilson, making a charge of assault and battery against her husband, said he had abused the child. "Whenever it is necessary to correct the little one," said the judge, "Mrs. Wilson can attend to that."

COOK ANSWERS ALL QUESTIONS

Explorer Submits to Sharp Cross-Examination.

CONDUCTED BY REPORTERS

Showed Newspaper Men His Diary. Material Points of His Anxieties Did Not Differ In a Great Degree From His Original Story—Says He Considers Peary His Friend.

New York, Sept. 23.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, seeking rest and seclusion with his family in the Waldorf-Astoria after the boisterous welcome, submitted cheerfully to one of the severest cross-examinations since he announced his discovery of the North Pole. The ordeal of the interview, which was conducted by forty newspaper representatives, including several from foreign newspapers, proved at least that he was not afraid to meet the public. Incidentally the city of New York officially recognized his achievement when the board of aldermen passed a resolution, commemorating his discovery and providing for a public welcome at the city hall.

The material points of Dr. Cook's answers did not differ in a great degree from his original recital. Some slight details were cleared up, however, which throw light on the way in which the polar dash was effected.

The most interesting phase of the interview was reached when Dr. Cook was asked if he would object to showing his diary. He immediately consented and, after retiring to his room, returned with a small octavo notebook, which he showed freely to all. It was a thin book containing 176 pages, each of which was filled with fifty or sixty lines of pencilled writing in the most minute characters. The book, he said, contained considerably more than 100,000 words, while he has besides other books embracing his observations and other data. He did not show them, however.

The interviewers were rather severe in regard to details, but nothing indicated that the polar traveller's memory was at fault even in the most minute particulars.

Not once did he refuse to reply except when the name of Commander Peary was broached. Even then he said that he had always and did now consider Peary as his friend, but controversial subjects in connection with his rival he avoided entirely, saying that they could wait. Throughout the interview he exhibited the utmost patience.

When requested to say what had occurred at his meeting with Harry Whitney, the New Haven sportsman, he said he preferred to let Whitney tell his own story, as Whitney was quite unbiassed. His reasons in imposing secrecy on Whitney, on Pritchard, Peary's cabin boy, and the Eskimos were prompted by his desire to be the first to tell the world of his discovery. He had done the work, he said, and was entitled to relate how it had been carried out.

A good deal has been said about Murphy and Pritchard, Peary's men, who were left in charge of the stores at Etah, and stress has been laid upon the point that they never told Peary of Cook's dash to the pole after it had been related to them. Dr. Cook said that he told Whitney in the hearing of Pritchard, and that Pritchard wrote a letter to his mother about the discovery.

"I made him take that out of the letter," continued Cook, "for the letter would have reached here months ahead of me."

sledge, Commander Robert E. Peary enjoyed the novelty of journeying by railroad train, when he departed for his home on Eagle island, Maine.

The explorer, accompanied by his wife and family, with a score of newspaper correspondents, will reach Portland, Me., this evening. He expects to spend a few days at Eagle Island, making up his reports and preparing a statement on the question "Has Cook been at the pole?" He said he did not think it would be long before the statement was made public.

All Out Of Sorts

Has Any Gettysburg Person Never Felt That Way?

Feel all out of sorts?
Tired, Blue, Irritable, Nervous?
Back feel lame and achy?
That's the story of sick kidneys—
Bad blood circulating about;
Uric acid poisoning the body.
Just one way to feel right again,
Cure the sluggish kidneys;
Do it with Doan's Kidney Pills.
Doan's have cured many Gettysburg people.

Here's one case.

Mrs. Anna Matthews, 44 Steinwehr Ave., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "It would be hard to describe the misery I endured from kidney disease, in fact it really seemed as if I had all the symptoms of this malady. My back ached severely and the pains were so intense at times as to make me feel miserable. The kidney secretions were also irregular in passage and gave me much annoyance. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's drug store and used them according to directions. My back grew stronger in a short time, the kidney secretions were regulated and I felt better in every way".

Five Years

of Heart Trouble Cured by Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had pains in my left side, and under my shoulder blade, could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath the least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. When I had taken six bottles I was cured."

MRS. C. C. GORKEY,
Northfield, Va.

If there is fluttering or palpitation it is an indication of a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the heart. It is not necessarily diseased—just weak from over-work. The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. You can make a weak heart strong by taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist, take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

Hay Fever CURED.

Victims of This Malady Find Relief in a Brand New Form of Treatment.

NEW YORK.—A large number of hay fever cases were cured last season by the Senpene treatment and already at the commencement of the season, thousands of sufferers are seeking various methods of relief. The older methods have nearly all been abandoned and now the new Vienna Senpene treatment seems to be accomplishing wonderful results.

The Woodworth Co., 1161 Broadway, New York City have generously offered to send a free trial of Senpene cure for Hay Fever, Asthma and Catarrh, to all who write them. This free offer will convince many skeptics who still insist that the only preventive of this malady is a change of climate.

WOULD WHIP WIFE BEATERS

Federated Humane Society Asked to Urge Adoption of Whipping Post.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—Delegates to the Federated Humane society's state convention here did not discuss, as expected, a proposed law to have wife beaters sentenced to the whipping post, because it was the sense of the delegates that it is at present impossible to get the Pennsylvania legislature to pass such a law. Mrs. A. M. Bertels, of this city, an earnest advocate of the whipping post, said, however, that the delegates would ask the national convention to meet soon in St. Paul, Minn., to declare in favor of it and urge its adoption in all the states of the Union.

Mrs. Bertels believes that while a wife beater should not be sent to the whipping post for the first offense, he should be sentenced to severe punishment with the whip if he repeats the offense, the number of strokes to be decided by the judge according to the nature of the evidence. Mrs. Bertels believes that one application of such punishment would be sufficient to cure a decidedly chronic case. She will speak in behalf of the whipping post at the convention.

MILL GIRL'S DREAM OF WEALTH COMES TRUE

Rich Uncle Would Adopt Bloomsburg Mill Worker.

Bloomsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—From the lot of a mill worker to wealth is the future prospect of Miss Lizzie E. Martz, who resides with her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Martz, here. She has been offered this if she will but change her name and become the adopted daughter of her rich uncle, Harry Colbaugh, of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Colbaugh have never had any children and are desirous of adopting Miss Martz, who they say ten years ago, when she was but ten years of age, offering her everything in the way of education, money and pleasure if she will consent.

Miss Martz has been employed in a local mill since she was able to work and is the sole support of her grandmother. She left on a visit to her uncle in New York. She says she will accept nothing from him unless her grandmother is well taken care of.

FRENCH AVIATOR KILLED

Captain Ferber Crushed Under His Aeroplane.

Boulogne, Sept. 23.—Tragedy marked the end of the local aviation meeting. Captain Ferber, known in the aviation world as M. De Rue, was practicing. His aeroplane was not running well, and he was about to land after a flight, when one of his wheels came into collision with a tiny hillock. This caused the machine to turn completely over, and Captain Ferber was pinned to the ground under it. His chest was crushed in and he died shortly afterward.

Captain Ferber had a bad smash when he was flying last Thursday. At that time he broke a rudder and one cell of his biplane. One of his best flights was at Issy on Aug. 16, when he covered 800 metres.

Rear Admiral Clark Ill.

SCORES DEAD IN GULF STORM

Fifty-five Bodies Found and Forty-five Missing.

PROPERTY LOSS MILLIONS

Miles of Territory Laid Waste and Crops Ruined—Buildings of Every Description Leveled and Many Vessels Destroyed.

New Orleans, Sept. 23.—Gradually New Orleans and the territory surrounding the Crescent City is recovering from the first effects of the tropical hurricane. Fifty-five human lives are now positively known to have been claimed as victims of the storm, and forty-five others are reported to have been lost in Lower Terrebonne parish, but as yet this report has not been authenticated.

The property loss will run into the millions. Miles of territory have been laid waste and crops have practically been ruined. Dwellings, cotton gins and sugar mills have been levelled.

Both the Illinois Central and the Louisville & Nashville railroads have suffered heavy loss, miles of their tracks having been washed away. It will be several weeks before the latter will again be running trains over their own tracks.

The death list in the lower portion of Terrebonne parish increased as details were received, until now it numbers twenty-eight. It is reported that at least fifty others have been drowned or crushed in the flying debris of the wrecked mills, dwellings and fishing camps.

Thrilling tales of narrow escapes and daring rescues come from the storm swept area.

Pleasure craft and shipping of all kinds in the Bayou Inlets were totally destroyed and the loss will be very heavy.

Store houses, sugar mills and dwellings of every character at Houma and other villages suffered heavily, and scarcely a structure was untouched by the hurricane.

The damage done by the storm at Grand Island, Chenier and Caminada was very heavy, but at these places there was no loss of life. The crops of these islands were totally destroyed and the orange groves were stripped clean of fruit and foliage.

TEN DEAD IN CUBA

Over $2,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed by Cyclone.

Washington, Sept. 23.—More than ten lives were lost and property worth over $2,000,000 was destroyed in the cyclone which recently swept over the province of Pinar Del Rio, Cuba. Communication between Havana and the storm area in the western part of the province was cut off except at two or three points, and reports of damages are just reaching Havana. More than 2000 people are without shelter or supplies, several hundred houses and huts and tobacco barns, several thousand acres of tobacco and many small vessels along the coast were destroyed. Mr. Dearing, the American charge at Havana, in his report to the state department, says that foreign aid to the sufferers, however, is not needed.

CARRIES SIGHT BY WIRE

Mexican Prisoner Claims Invention of Vision Transmitter.

Mexico City, Sept. 23.—Alberto Sanchez, an electrical engineer, at present an inmate of the Belem prison, claims to have invented an apparatus whereby vision as well as voice may be transmitted over an ordinary telephone wire. He calls his invention a teleradiation, and the prison officials admit that successful tests have been made with models. It is said the contrivance resembles short opera glasses attached to a battery.

Catboat Upsets; Two Men Drown.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 23.—The overturned sailing craft sighted off Wolf Trap, Chesapeake bay, is now known to be the catboat Gossip, owned by Francis W. Scarborough, of Richmond. PETRIFIED HEAD FOUND IN MINE

Perfect Specimen Found 800 Feet Under Ground.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Sept. 23.—Eight hundred feet below the surface of the earth miners digging a tunnel unearthed a man's head, petrified, in the Maple Hill mine. The specimen, which is a perfect one, will be sent to a Philadelphia museum.

The eyes, nose, ears and even the hair stand out in excellent relief. It is believed that the head is the remains of a workman who met death years ago and no one was ever able to find his body. The freak find was made under a large rock, over which running water passed.

RESOLUTIONS

At a regular meeting of Washington Camp 414, Patriotic Order Sons of America, held Thursday evening, September 16th, 1909, the following resolutions were passed on the death of Norman Bumbaugh.

Whereas: An allwise Providence has permitted the hand of death to remove from our Camp our beloved brother, Norman Bumbaugh. And Whereas: Camp 414, P. O. For Lice on Hogs.
A swine breeder says that a good thing to do in the hog lot is to put down some short posts, around which some old tow sacks are fastened. Saturate these thoroughly every once in awhile with kerosene, and when the hogs rub up against the posts to scratch the oil will help to keep them free from lice.

A LAFAYETTE WOMAN HUNG

Marvelous Results Of The Great Discovery.

When the Root Juice scientist was at Lafayette, Ind., Mrs. Tom Sheldon of that city called on him and said: "I actually hung to the neck of my husband and pleaded with him to try Root Juice. So much was being said about the many cures the remedy was making that I felt it might do him some good. He had suffered for years with his stomach and kidneys and severe headache. Every change of the weather his back would hurt him intensely, and of late years the lightest food would ferment in his stomach and bowels, and the formation of gas would cause him to bloat very much. He had tried so many things that he had lost heart, but I finally persuaded him to get a bottle of Root Juice. The first bottle made him feel so much better that he went back to the drug store and got three more bottles. After using four bottles of the truly wonderful medicine his health seems perfect. I never saw such a change in a man in my life. He told me that he would not take a fortune for what Root Juice has done for him." The remedy creates much excitement in every city in which it is introduced. One of the demonstrations was at Johnstown recently and nearly every day the newspapers at that point reported marvelous good that was being derived from the use of the remedy by numerous citizens. The instructors have hundreds of testimonials from people who have been cured by the great remedy.

$100, REWARD $100,

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

THE SHOWS ARE O'ER.
How glad I am the shows are o'er
And Henry has come home!
I no longer need to shove coal
And run the place alone.

There's no stopping in the kitchen
Washing yellow roosters white.
No hens lay in the beds.
The cockerels and the pullets
Aren't flying round my head.

I no longer hear my Henry
Cackling of the cups and prizes,
Crowing in his midnight dreams
That he would spring some "big surprises."

He told us fifty times a day
How he would "clean the show up all!"
And turned the table upside down
In showing how he had "em licked."

My, he's meeklike since he got home,
For his hopes all went to wreck!
Those "rank judges" gave his roosters
Solar plexus in the neck.

I'm so glad the judges catch it
When the showmen swear and fuss.
It's the first time since old Adam
That the men missed blaming us.

Yes, dear Henry is so meeklike,
Sweating in the rooster pen.
It will last until next show time—
Then he'll get well licked again.

NOW ON STRIKE

Millions of Stomachs Refuse to do Their Work Properly.

All over this broad land millions of stomach owners are being held in humiliating subjection just because they are so stubborn that they will not accept a fair, square and broad minded offer.

Life is short for all of us; it will be shorter for those who let their stomachs go from bad to worse.

The People's Drug Store has a famous prescription called Mi-o-na and they believe so thoroughly in its remarkable curative power that they say to every owner of a disordered stomach that they will guarantee Mi-o-na tablets to cure acute or chronic indigestion and all stomach ailments or money back, and the price is only 50c a box.

And still there are stubborn people right in Gettysburg who won't accept this offer but continue to suffer from gas on stomach, belching of sour food, stomach pains, foul breath, dizziness, biliousness and headaches just because—just because—that's all, there is no other reason.

Mi-o-na tablets stop dyspeptic agony in five minutes; they cure obstinate cases of indigestion and turn the old stomach into a new one in a few weeks—or money back.

Both Were Winners.

A former United States senator was sitting in the Grand Pacific hotel in Chicago one evening when he was approached by an old time friend, who was engaged in a losing battle with John Barleycorn. The man took a chair alongside the senator.

"I have a tip on which I can make $4 on the open board of trade tomorrow if I can get $10 to put up," he said. "I thought you would let me have the ten."

The senator canvassed the situation quickly in his mind. Then he reached into his pocket and pulled out some money.

"There you are," he said to his friend, handing him $4.

The man took the currency and then hesitated.

"This is only $4, senator," he explained. "I need ten."

"You said you expected to make only $4, didn't you? Well, there it is. You have made $4, and I have made $6."

And that closed the transaction.

Law of the Household.
Would we codify the laws that should reign in households and whose daily transgression annoys and mortifies us and degrades our household life, we must learn to adorn every day with sacrifices. Good manners are made up of petty sacrifices. Temperance, courage, love, are made up of the same jewels. Listen to every prompting of honor.—Emerson.

An Old-Time Prescription

in a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.
